Purpose and legal basis for using your information

Here, we will explain the reason why we have collected your personal data and the reasons for processing.

Our legal basis for processing your information:

We have a statutory obligation to process your personal data

Further details about our legal basis for using your information and the purpose of processing:

The processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the exercise of official authority.

We process your information to determine applications for admission to school in accordance with the Welsh Government School Admissions Code, School Admission Appeals Code and the School Standards and Framework Act.

The right to withdraw consent

If we are relying on your consent to process your data, you have the right to withdraw your consent to this processing at any point. To do so, please contact the person named at the top of this privacy notice.

(Only relevant to consent based processing)

You must provide us with the information we need to deliver the service, if there is either:

- A contractual obligation to do so, or
- A statutory obligation to do so.

(Only relevant if the lawful basis for processing is the performance of a contract or Public duty/task obligation)

The consequences of not providing the information are as follows:

We will be unable to determine your application which may mean that we cannot allocate a school place for your child

Special Category Data

(Only relevant if special category data is being processed)

Sometimes we process special category which is afforded more protection under the Data Protection Act. This is because special category data is deemed to be more sensitive. If we are processing your special category data then we need to establish a further lawful basis for processing, and we have highlighted this below:

There is public interest in the area of public health (e.g healthcare standards, medical treatments)

Sometimes we will ask for data relating to health, faith or ethnicity. This is to ensure that the preferred establishment is suitable to the applicant and that it has the required resources, adaptations or provisions in place to meet the applicant needs. This information will also assist us in allocating alternative, suitable placements if required. The information requested will be proportionate to the aim pursued, if you require any further information about how we process this data, please contact;

School.admissions@newport.gov.uk

Automatic decision making/profiling

(Only relevant if we are making an automated decision on a data subject)

Sometimes we use computers or technology to help us make decisions about the service we offer you. Below are the details of what decision making or profiling systems we have used, and how the decision was made:

Not applicable as we do not use any fully automated systems
