

NCC Structures team has no objection to this application.

One observation is that sufficient land drainage must be considered so that either property is not affected by runoff from surrounding land.