

50 Bryngywn Road

A week or so back I raised an objection through the NCC website to the above planning application.

I am now taking the opportunity to attach some photographs which illustrate the points made in my objection.

I would particularly draw your attention the size and position of the garage in relation to the rear of my house and the privacy issues around using my garden, kitchen and dining room.

REDACTED

