Hi Jacob

I have already commented directly that deliveries to be scheduled to avoid peak hours "where possible" is insufficient commitment and pointless. I won't be able to support the discharge. I can accept that there may be exceptions, but this allows them to schedule it at any time and just say they couldn't do it.

Regards

Hi Kevin

Thank you for your time this morning – very helpful.

As promised I've updated the Service Management Plan as attached in track changes. Welcome your confirmation that this covers the point we discussed, but equally happy for you to make any changes you'd like to see so that we can finalise.

I have copied my colleague Amanda in so once the wording is agreed she can issue a final pdf version for formal submission.

Simon

Kind regards

Simon Tucker
