

Neighbour comments from 36 Bryn Bevan

I have no objection to the retrospective planning application for the raised decking at 34 Bryn Bevan.

In my opinion, the decking is an attractive addition to the property and has improved its overall appearance. It does not negatively affect my property, my enjoyment of my home, or the character of the surrounding area in any way.

I fully support the application and have no concerns regarding the decking structure.