Hi Harpreet,

Ideally I would like to see 5.5 when parking up against something. That said a standard space is only 4.8m so there is still some scope for inaccurate parking and most cars would fit comfortably, so I don't consider it would warrant an objection, but it is less than ideal.

Regards
Kevin

Hi Kevin,

Thank you for your comments. There appeared to be some issues with the plans, and the hardstanding is measuring as 5.02m (see revised plans). Please let me know if your comments are subsequently changed.

Kind regards

Hi Khela

There would be no objection to proposal as shown on the amended drawing, but there is no title block to reference it for approval.

Regards
Kevin

Hi Kevin,

Thank you for this. I have attached a revised plan from the applicant in lieu of the comments. Please let me know if this is acceptable.

Kind regards
