Certificate of Ownership - Certificate D

I certify/the applicant certifies that:

- Certificate A cannot be issued for this application
- All reasonable steps have been taken to find out the names and addresses of everyone else who, on the day 21 days before the date of this application, was the owner (owner is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least seven years left to run) of any part of the land to which this application relates, but I have/the applicant has been unable to do so.

The steps taken were:

A search of Land Registry records revealed that there were no records relating to the application site and the site is not registered to any known owner. Previous inquiries by the Council to identify a landowner were also unsuccessful: the former owners of the former Alcan site, Walters UK confirmed that they have no responsibility for the land, as did the current land managers, the Jubilee Park Management Company. Similarly, both Natural Resources Wales and the Welsh Government also confirmed that they have no responsibility for the land. A public notice (Notice No.2 - in accordance with Article 10 of DMPO Wales) was published in a local newspaper (the South Wales Argus) as well as on-line via Public Notice Online for 31 days.

Notice of the application has been published in the following newspaper (circulating in the area where the land is situated)

Yes - South Wales Argus
