Please state why a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted

The as-built single-storey rear extension is to replace an pre-development conservatory and will be constructed on the same footprint. The extension complies with the provisions of Schedule 2, Part 1, Class A of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Specifically, the extension does not exceed 3 metres in depth from the original rear wall of the terraced dwelling, does not exceed 4 metres in overall height, and is constructed using materials similar in appearance to the existing house.

The property is a C3 dwelling house and benefits from permitted development rights. The proposed works do not require express planning permission and are therefore lawful.
